1. The Local Committee of the Ecuadoran Communist Party branch in Guayaquil tightened its control of cells in that area during the last two weeks of December 1943. In this connection, the following action was initiated:
 - a. Each cell member was given a registration blank to complete and return to his cell leaders. This will enable members to obtain official membership cedula at a later date.
 - b. Cell leaders were instructed to forward an accurate report of each cell meeting to the Local Committee.
 - c. Miscellaneous news concerning cell activity is to be forwarded to Franklin Perez Castro at 922 Esmeraldas Street, Guayaquil.
 - d. Cells should under no circumstances assume the name of a living member of the Party. This will avoid any embarrassment in the event the honored member should at any time disgrace the Party.
 - e. Members were instructed to submit their names for subscriptions to the Boletin Semanal de Informacion, published in Mexico. Subscriptions should be sent to the Soviet Embassy in Mexico City. The publication will be forwarded free of charge.
